

Why the value of trustees lies in their unpaid status

A letter from NAVCA Chair Mike Martin was published in this week's 'Third Sector' (11 May). "Trustees join the boards of charities in order to give service to those who need help and communities that need leadership. We must never risk undermining this altruistic motive by lifting the current restrictions on paying trustees to sit on charity boards".

www.thirdsector.co.uk